I am the people - the mob - the crowd -
the mass.
Do you know that all the great work of the world is done through me?
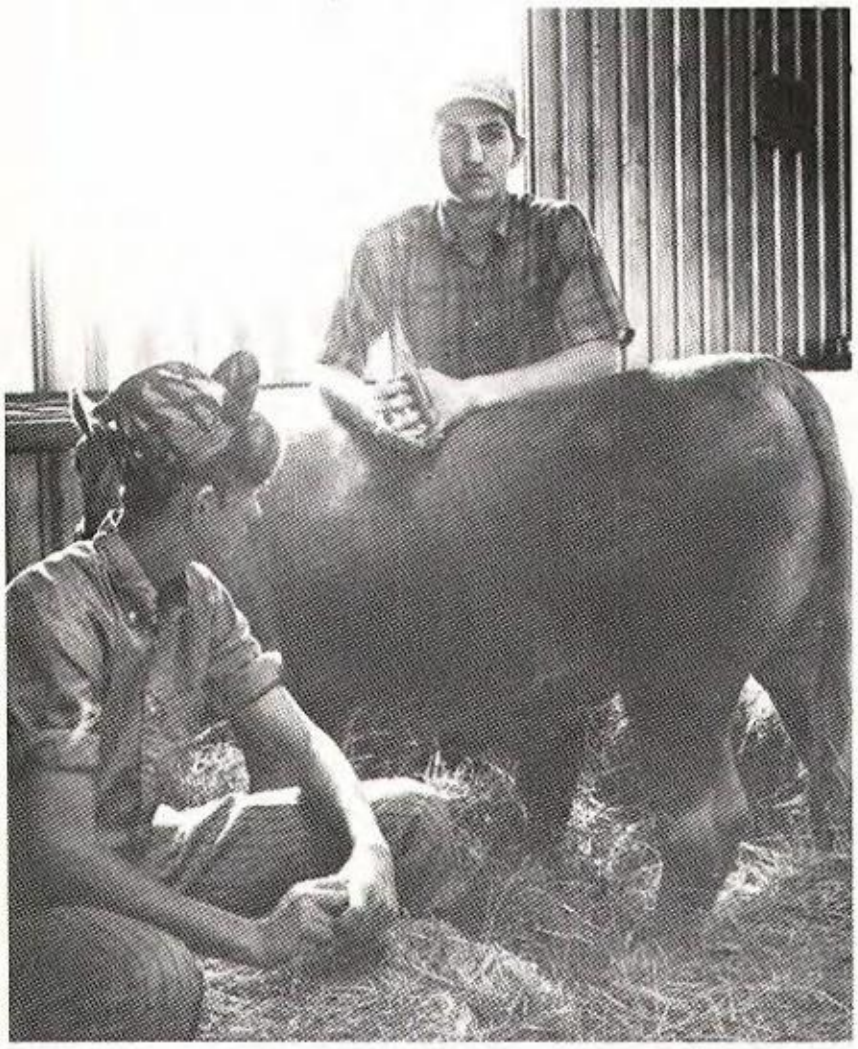
I am the working man, the inventor, the maker
of the world's food and clothes.



I am the audience that witnesses history.
The Napoleans come from me and the Lincolns. They die.
And then I send forth more Napoleans and Lincolns.

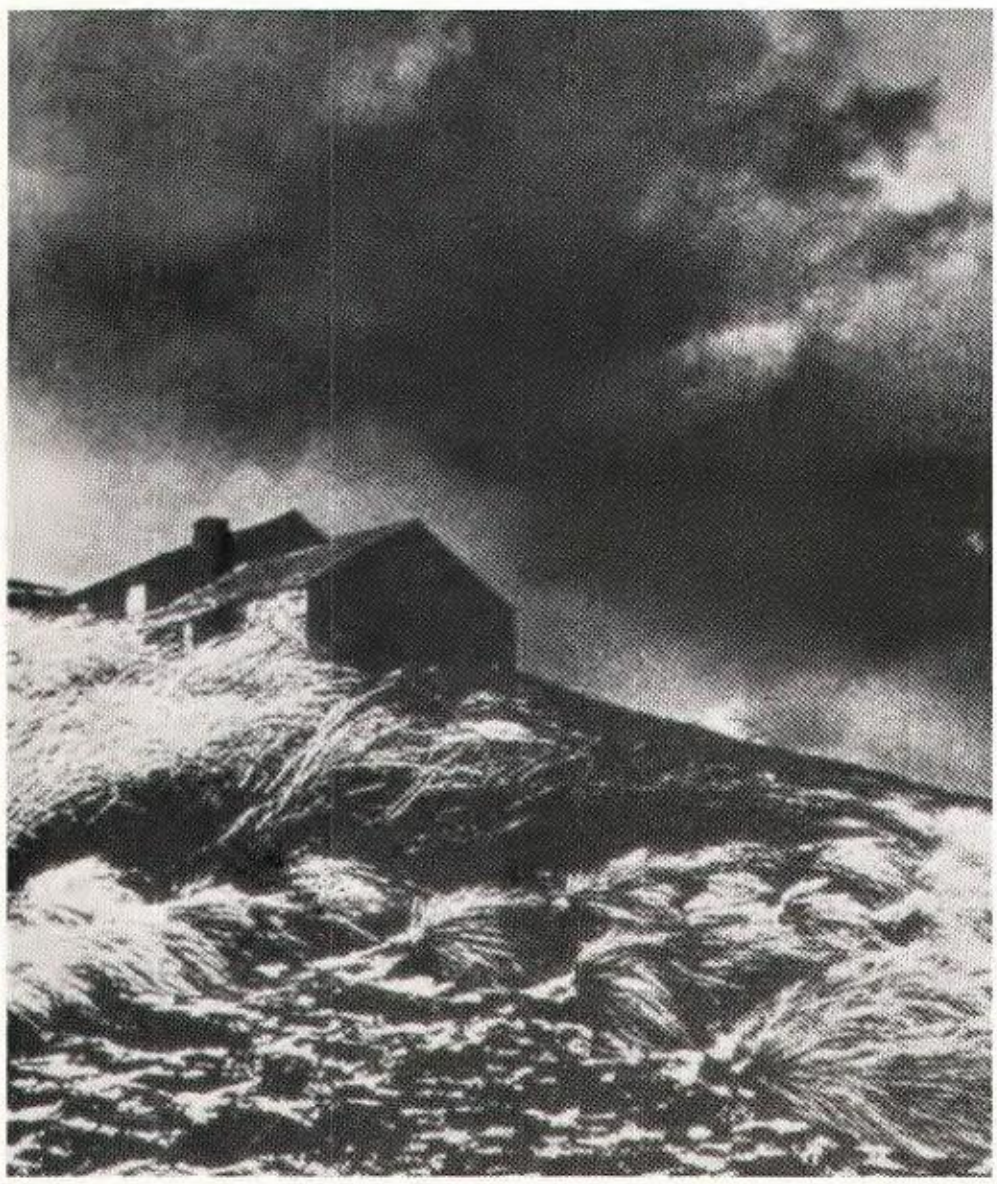
I am the seed ground. I am a praire that will stand for much plowing. Terrible storms pass over me.
I forget.
The best of me is sucked out and wasted. I forget.
Everything but Death comes to me and makes me work and give up what I have.
And I forget.



Bill Brandt

Sometimes I growl, shake myself and spatter a few red drops for history to remember. Then I forget.

Look Mag.

When I, the People, learn to remember,
when I, the People, use the lessons of yesterday and no longer forget who robbed me last year, who played me for a fool - then there will be no speaker in all the world say the name: 'The People,' with any fleck of a sneer in his voice or any far-off smile of derision.

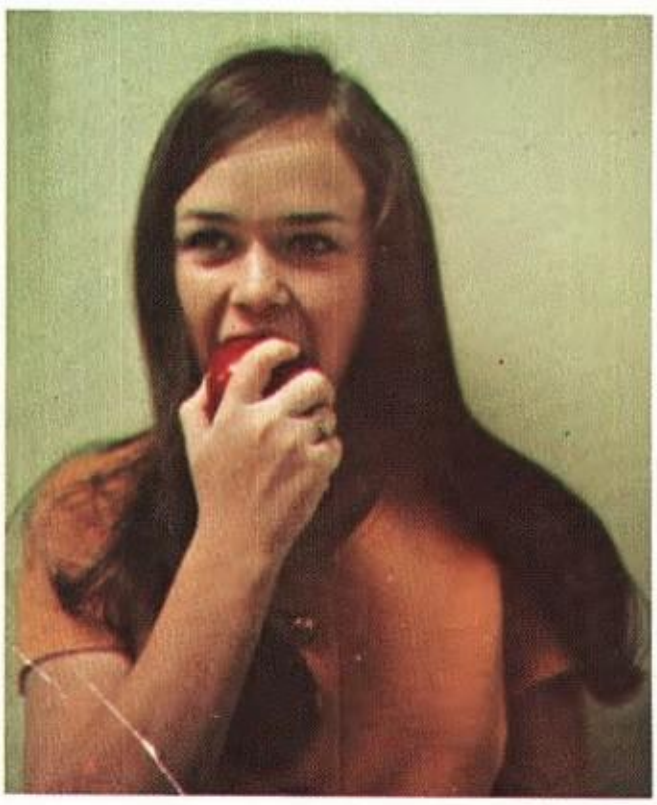
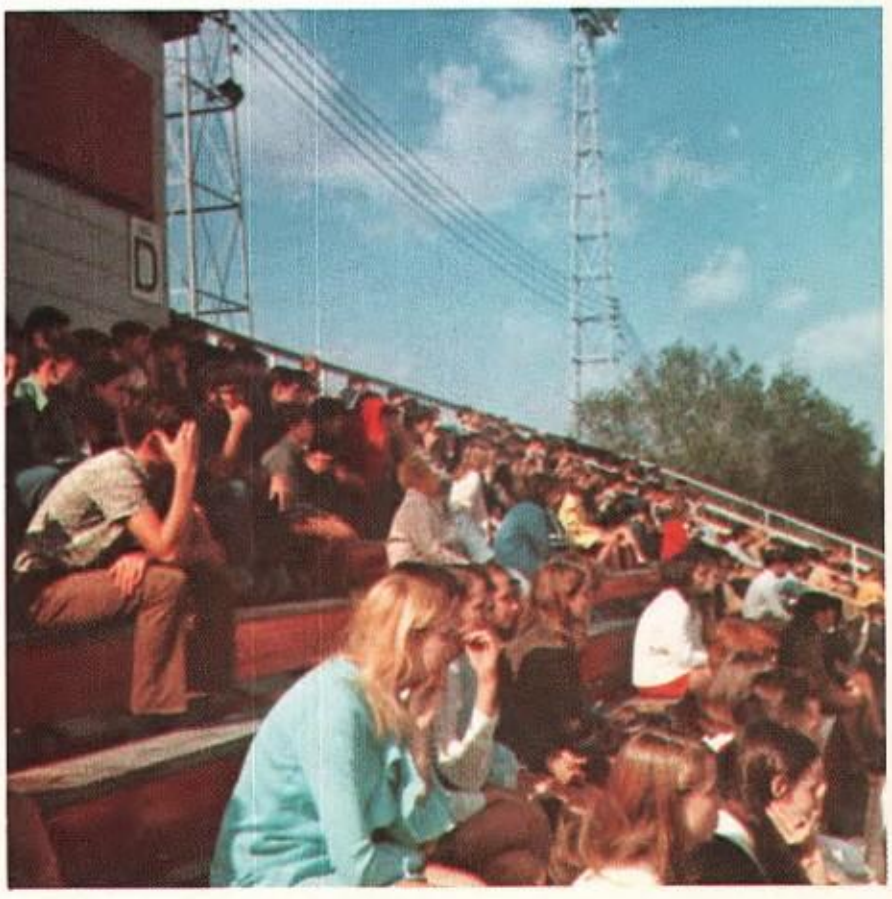
THE MOB - the crowd - the mass - will arrive then.

Carl Sandburg





Dedication

It is difficult to single out one person as being more deserving of mention than another. However, we the staff of the 1971 Echo dedicate this edition of the yearbook to Mrs. Rosemary Mielly.

Although Mrs. Mielly has taught here for only two years, she has become well liked by all who know her.

She is the sponsor of Girl's Forum, and the Sophomore Class. She teaches English and Typing. Most important, though, she possesses the ability to listen and give advice to those who need her.

We therefore wish to take this opportunity to thank her for her admirable and undaunted service.
